

Ruby Jean Blockson

January 4, 1945 - March 7, 2017

Ruby Blockson of Seaford, Delaware, transitioned from mortality to immortality on Tuesday, March 7, 2017, after a brief illness.

Ruby Blockson, aka (Ruby J), was born on January 4, 1945 in Bishopville, Maryland to the late Jullion Mathias Cuffee Sr. and Alice White Tindley.

Ruby relocated to Delaware and received her education in Delaware's public school system. She was a dedicated worker in the poultry industry and retired in 1998. Upon her retirement, she continued to work as a manager in food service as well as other industries. Ruby was a jack-of-all trades and she mastered them all.

She loved cooking, doing crafts and enjoyed listening to music. One of her favorite pastimes was playing spades. In her community, Ruby was a mother to many. She enjoyed advising and encouraging the youth through Godly wisdom and was a staunch believer of second chances. Ruby had a heart of compassion and gave her time to those that others gave up on. She always supported the outcast. Sometimes her words were tough because she shot straight from the hip, but they were always laced with love. She will be remembered by many as Mom Ruby.

She was preceded in death by 19 siblings.

She leaves to cherish her memory, her husband, Edward Blockson of Seaford, DE, two sons, Nathaniel White of Magnolia, DE and Maurice Felton (Heather) of Copperas Cove, TX., one daughter, Robin White of Felton, DE, one daughter-in-law, Toya (Fernandez) Bolden; her mother-in-law, Charlene

“ I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your loved one. Death is an enemy of mankind, but Almighty God is going to remove death, sickness and pain in the near future. (Revelation 21:3&4) The bible also tells us that the dead will be resurrected at John 5:28&29. Please take comfort in the bible during your time of grief and may the God of all comfort give you peace.

“ To all family and friends,
Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Many have found true comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). At John 8:32 Jesus said " and you will know the truth and the truth will set you free". For more information please visit the website jw.org.

“ My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one (Proverbs 17:17). Often at difficult times like this we reflect on how fragile life can be and how precious it is as well (James 4:14). Jesus assures us that one day he will bring back to life all those who have died (John 5:28, 29). And they will experience something mankind has not seen for thousands of years - the total removal of all types of pain, suffering, and even death humans have endured all this time (Revelation 21:3-5; Isaiah 25:8). What a truly glorious day that will be! Until then Almighty God wants us, as directed through His Word, the Bible, to do His Will, not ours and be blessed forever (1 John 2:17). As you grieve may you take the time to look up all these inspired scriptures and be comforted with a sure hope ahead (2 Timothy 3:16, 17; Jeremiah 10:11). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.
