

Russell Charles Tyndall

August 6, 1930 - July 19, 2018

Russell Charles Tyndall was born on August 6, 1930, to the late Robert Kelso and Elva Tyndall. He departed this life on Thursday, July 19, 2018, at the Harrison House in Georgetown, Delaware.

Russell accomplished many things in his life. He started out working on his parent's farm, and eventually created a career as an auto mechanic. He worked for many places, including Burton's Chevrolet for many years. He also worked with George Carmean in the trucking business for a period of time. From 1949-1951, he worked at the J. Morris White Feed Company in Pittsville, Maryland. In 1951, he enlisted in the U.S. Army and served proudly at Fort Sheridan, Illinois. Later in his life, he worked for Jim Baxter until he retired. What he accomplished in work was nothing compared to what he accomplished in life. Russell always put others before himself and was a generous and caring man. He loved to work in his wood shop where he created some extraordinary items. He loved cowboy boots, non-pleated pants, and having breakfast at Hardee's every morning. He brought laughter and joy wherever he went. He will be missed dearly by his family and friends.

Russell joins his parents, Kelso and Elva Tyndall, his brother Ernest, his sister Margaret, and Julie, his son Gary's wife in heaven.

He is survived by his wife, Janet B. Jones Tyndall; his children, Gary Tyndall, Jimmy Tyndall, Bill Lewis, Rita Sheranko and her husband Larry, Shawn Lewis and his wife Lori, Willie Lewis, and Toni Craig and her husband, Jim; his siblings, Bonnie Scott and Merrill Tyndall; his grandchildren, Jimmy Tyndall, Jr., Megan Tyndall, Mark Sheranko, Casey Lewis and his wife Laura, Benjamin Crane, Hope Craig, Seth Tyndall, Derek Lewis, and Isaac Lewis; and his great-grandchildren, Owen Lewis and Cali Lewis.

To send flowers to the family or plant a tree in memory of Russell Charles Tyndall, please visit our Heartfelt Sympathies Store.

Tribute Wall

HF

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

H. Fields - July 29, 2018 at 12:00 AM

RS

“ My dear father, I miss you already! You often said that you should have been gone years ago considering all of the things that you endured. I am truly grateful that was not the case, as we were given many years to share and create memories together. Although you did not experience an easy life, I believe that you led a full life and for that I am happy. I will think of you often, and please know that the tears that I shed for you today will eventually be replaced with smiles and laughter as I share our memories with friends and family. With love, Rita.

Rita Sheranko - July 27, 2018 at 12:00 AM

BS

“ To my oldest living brother - though I didn't see you often you are/were dearly loved. I have some of your beautiful woodwork, clock, iron and wooden farm toys. Love you and miss you already

Bonnie Scott - July 26, 2018 at 12:00 AM

IR

“ Sorry for your loss of a loved one. Read Psalms 46:1 for words of comfort and peace.

Irene - July 24, 2018 at 12:00 AM

JO

“ I would like to offer my sincere condolences for your loss. In such difficult time, many families appreciate the comfort offered by the Bible of the time when no one will lose a loved one in death and we will be able to enjoy life again with our loved one. (Isaiah 41: 10). I hope these thoughts comfort you

JoyceA - July 21, 2018 at 12:00 AM

MJ

“ I would like to offer my condolences for your loss. I hope you will find comfort in knowing that Jehovah, the God of all comfort, will soon eliminate all grief and provide permanent consolation when “all those in the memorial tombs will hear [Christ’s] voice and come out”! (John 5:28, 29) God promises that “he will do away with death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.” (Isa. 25:8) Then, instead of having to “weep with those who weep,” all earth’s inhabitants will “rejoice with those who rejoice.”—Rom. 12:15.

M Jones - July 20, 2018 at 12:00 AM

TW

“ Sorry For Your Loss
Jesus Loves Me
I Am Special

Thomas Widgeon - July 20, 2018 at 12:00 AM