RUSSHETTE'S JOURNEY

Russhette Arnette Johnson-Bailey, affectionately known to family and friends as “Aunt Pooh”, was the daughter of Ola Mae Taylor-Johnson and the late Russell Anthony Johnson. She was born in Voorhees, New Jersey on March 10, 1984 and departed this earthly life on Sunday, January 3, 2021 at Tidal Health surrounded by her loving family.

Russhette attended Lawnside, New Jersey public schools and graduated from Wicomico High School in Salisbury, Maryland. She was employed at Target for a short period of time and later became a stay-at-home mother. She was a talented artist and a very loving and caring person with a huge heart. She would give you the shirt off her back if you needed it.

Russhette leaves cherished memories with: her husband Leonard Bailey, Sr.; one son Leonard Bailey, Jr. and one daughter, De Jasha Renee Bailey; her loving mother Ola Taylor Johnson; two brothers, Dwayne Taylor and Marvin Crowder; one sister, Shashwana Johnson; a sister-in-law, Andrea Taylor and a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins and many close friends.

“Ola, you have my deepest sympathy, who would have known that seeing you a few weeks ago that we'd be seeing each other again so under these circumstances. We cant question God, only he knows. I'm here if you need anything, only a phone call away,with all that's going o. In the world family really needs to be here for on another. \ud83d\ude4f\ud83c\udffd & \ud83d\ude96
