“ I am sorry for your loss, please accept my sincere condolences. I hope the family will find some comfort and strength in Jesus promise of the earthly resurrection(Acts 24:15)and the renewed Paradise earth, where death will be no more and no family will mourn the death of a loved one.-Revelation 21:3,4;John 5:28,29;Luke 23:43. may GOD(Psalms 83:18)grant you peace and comfort now, during this grievous time.-Matthew 5:4.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ My heartfelt sympathies go out to the family and friends during this difficult time. I hope that the promise in 1 Thessalonians 4:14 will bring comfort. This scripture says, “For if we have faith that Jesus died and rose again, so too God will bring with him those who have fallen asleep in death through Jesus”. Knowing that there is hope for those we have lost in death can be very reassuring, especially now.

“ My deepest sympathies on the loss of Ms. Theresa. I just found out today that she has passed over. I am shocked and sadden by it. Ms. Theresa was a beautiful woman inside and out. Always had a smile and a conversation for me when i saw her. She was so excited about Tyrina s 40th birthday celebration and the coming births of her grandbabies when i last saw her. She loved her children, her grandchildren, her family and her daycare babies. I could gurantee seeing her out and about and smiling. It dont seem right that that no longer will be. I will pray for you all. Nothing i say can ease this time of pain, but know that your mother was loved, respected, will be missed, and never forgotten.

“ To the Douglas/Harmon Family,
Know that our thoughts and prayers are with you during this time of bereavement. We know that Sis. Tressy, as well as the family, believed in eternal life through Jesus, the Christ. Let the love of God and the sweet communion of the Holy Spirit dwell in you richly and bring great comfort to your heart.

Blessings to all,

“ Family I am so sorry for the loss of Ruth. She had a phenomenal memory. Last year I ran into her and she remembered me from grade school through high school. She will be missed by all of us from the class of 1976. She is a wonderful person and you can take comfort in knowing she is now with our Lord and Savior.

“ My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one. We send this condolence with the sure hope the Bible provides all of us at difficult times like this. As recorded in the Bible, God's only-begotten son, Jesus promises that one day he is personally going to bring back to life all those who have died (John 5:28, 29; 11:43, 44). As death is an enemy to us, it is also an enemy to Almighty God (1 Corinthians 15:26). For that reason, as well as others, He promises to remove from this earth FOREVER all the pain, suffering, wickedness, and DEATH that mankind has had to endure for thousands of years (Revelation 21:3-5; Psalm 37:10, 11, 29). What a glorious day that will surely be! It's a reality and a sure hope that we can trust in because it is absolutely impossible for God to lie (Titus 1:2). My wife and I sincerely encourage you to look up and meditate on these noted scriptures in your own Bible (1 Timothy 4:15, 16; 2 Timothy 3:16, 17). You will surely be encouraged and comforted by the marvelous hope our Grand Creator has in store for us (John 17:3). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.
