

Ruth Rosetta Johnson

August 20, 1937 - December 9, 2021

Ruth Rosetta Johnson, a resident of Pocomoke City, Maryland, transitioned onto Glory to be with our Lord on December 9, 2021, surrounded by loved ones. She was born to the late Mary Cooper and William Green and raised by the late Sadie Hodges. Lovingly known as Rose, she transitioned to heaven at the age of eighty-four (84).

Rose was a hard worker. She worked at the Campbell Soup Company until its closing and then, she worked as a seasonal seafood employee.

Rose enjoyed board games, especially the game Trouble. She was the family champion and didn't hesitate to let the family know it. Rose also enjoyed doing word search puzzles, watching TBN, helping those in her local community and taking care of stray cats.

A very strong-willed and determined woman, she always chose to do things her way. Rose loved to stay at home during the holidays to provide meals to anyone in need who happened to stop by.

She was a member at John Wesley United Methodist Church in Marion Station, Maryland. When Rose was unable to attend church, she would go outside and listen to the service from Macedonia Baptist Church under the leadership of Reverend Isaac Jenkins, Sr.

Rose will be lovingly remembered by: her son, William Green, also known as "Buster" (Sonia); her three grandchildren, Daniel, Danielle and Alexis; her Bichon Frise Baby and a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

She was married to the late James Johnson in 1973 and assumed the role of mother for his four children: the late Lorraine Johnson, the late Charles Johnson, the late Myrtle Hardy and Larry (Karen) Johnson.
