“*To The Family,
Please accept my condolence. My heart goes out to you in your time of sorrow. I hope that you are able to draw comfort from the scriptures during this difficult time. One of my favorite text says, “If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning.” (Job 14:14, 15).*

“*I'm sorry to the family for your lose. I've only known Sally a couple of years through DDA, but I will miss her talents and dedication to the chapter. I'm sure she is up with Jesus, painting his portrait.
Sincerely,
Linda England*

“Sincere sympathy to Sally's family. I knew Sally through the Delmara Decorative Artists. She was a lovely caring lady, artist and teacher. You will be missed. I will be traveling and unable to attend services.

“ When death strikes, the pain can be devastating, but know that Jehovah God cares and He will sustain you, during this time of sorrow.-I Peter 5:7; Psalms 55:22. Jesus gives us a hope for those who have fallen asleep in death. He tells us that there will be a resurrection where he will restore those in the grave back to life, to live forever on the paradise earth; reuniting them with their families.- John 5:28,29; 11:11-44; Luke 23:43. What a joyous time that will be.-Psalms 37:29.
