

Samona Janel Pickett-Cann

April 25, 1967 - June 14, 2018

Samona Janel “Nel” Pickett-Cann, the second daughter to the late Samuel Pickett and Mattie Mae Pickett, was born on April 25, 1967, at Milford Memorial Hospital. She graduated from Milford High School, Milford, Delaware, in 1985. She later received her training to be a certified Nurses Assistant at Delaware Technical and Community College in 2001. Samona was the loving mother of Ebonita Pickett and Kemp Brittingham, Jr.

Samona met her husband, Donovan Lamont Cann, about 15 years ago. Their relationship grew and blossomed. The result, a beautiful fall wedding on October 20, 2012. Samona had a host of friends, which includes the Fire n Ice sisterhood, Sisters in Motion, nurses from the Mt. Enon Baptist Church, in which she participated, and family members of her many clients.

Samona was a loving wife, an attentive mother and grandmother and she was super organized. Raziyah Pickett, her only grandchild, was the light of her life. They were inseparable. Nel was very caring and loving. This was evident by the attention she provided to the many many clients she assisted over the years. She was also instrumental in initiating family gatherings. Family was very important to her and she never had a problem expressing how much she loved us. She enjoyed playing spades, shooting pool, riding motorcycles and making sure her hair and nails were done. Samona had a colorfully expressive way of saying things; those who knew her are very familiar with those intimate expressions.

Samona Pickett-Cann was very direct in what she said. If she said it, she meant it. She was a take charge kind of lady (shucky ducky, quack quack); however, behind that tough exterior she had a huge heart and would give you the shirt off her back.

Nel's attempt to wind down after a long day of work, would include watching judge shows, Young and the Restless, or Family Feud, while doing Raziyah's hair, her own hair, or her nails. She was always doing something.

Samona will be missed but not forgotten by; Donovan Lamont Cann, Ebonita J. Pickett, Kemp B. Brittingham, Jr, Raziyah A. Pickett, Jacqueline B. Sullivan, Delba A. Smith, LaDetrich A. Clark, Ramona Y. Pickett, a host of siblings, family members and friends.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one. All of us have experienced the pain of death in some way sad to say. And, so, at difficult times like this we are confronted with the stark reality of how precious and fragile life can surely be (James 4:14). So, my wife and I send this condolence to you with the hope that we can in some small way comfort you as it has comforted us with what the Bible reveals to us about GOOD NEWS from Almighty God. Please be assured that we are in no way trying to impose our faith on you; but we sincerely just want to extend comfort to you during your grief (Proverbs 17:17).

As recorded in the Bible, God's only-begotten son, Jesus promises that one day he is personally going to bring back to life all those who have died, just as he did when he was on earth as a man (John 5:28, 29; 11:43, 44). Just as death is an enemy to us, it is also an enemy to God (1 Corinthians 15:26). For that reason, as well as others, He promises to remove FOREVER all the pain, suffering, wickedness, and DEATH that mankind has had to endure for thousands of years (Revelation 21:3-5; Psalm 37:10, 11, 29). What a glorious and almost unbelievable day that will be! It's a reality and a sure hope we can rely on because it is absolutely impossible for God to lie (Titus 1:2; Isaiah 55:10, 11).

It is our hope that you NOT take our word for what has been written in this condolence; but we encourage you to please take a moment to read and meditate on all these referenced scriptures in your own Bible (1 Timothy 4:15, 16). My wife and I are confident you will be encouraged and comforted by the marvelous hope God has in store for us (Psalm 1:1-3; John 17:3). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.
