

Samuel Maddox

September 27, 1940 - August 1, 2017

Samuel Maddox, Jr., known to many as “Wrinks” or “Sonny,” was born September 27, 1940 to the late Florence Johnson and Samuel Maddox, Sr. He was called home to be with the Lord on August 1, 2017.

Sam was graduated from the Henry Highland Garnet School. He worked for Laborers Local Union #199 for over 30 years before retiring due to illness.

He was a faithful member of Emmanuel United Methodist Church and enjoyed singing in the Men’s Choir. While he also loved shooting pool and was one of the best pool players in this area, he loved the Lord more.

Sam leaves to cherish his memories his loving wife of 14 years, Vanessa A. Maddox; three daughters, Ann Phillips, Prudence Maddox and Celeste Bonner; his brother, Rudolph Erskin; two stepsons, Randy Hynson (Rhianna) and Damien Jefferson (Renotta); and a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren, and other relatives. He will be missed by all, especially his granddaughter, Aniya Jefferson, who lived with him and helped to take care of her “Mr. Sam.”

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."
