“ I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your loved one. Death is an enemy to us all, but Almighty God is going to remove death, tears, mourning and pain in the near future. (Revelation 21:4) The bible also tells us that the dead will be resurrected. (Acts 24:15) Please take comfort in the bible during your time of grief, and may the God of all comfort grant your entire family peace.

“ My condolences to the family!

I have fond memories of Mr. Pickett. I hired him to continue working at Whatcoat Shelter in 2010. He was knowledgeable, a hard worker, trustworthy & very much 'by the book!' I admired his strong instincts on a tough job and his no nonsense approach.

Mr. Pickett loved to dress and I looked forward to seeing what he had worn to work at shift change. I dubbed him the Jolly Green Giant one year when he came in decked out in green, but despite my urging he get trade in the Cowboys attire for the Eagles...he wouldnt budge!

Bet God is shaking his head at him now!

Last I remember Mr. Pickett being a man of strong faith and love of God. He read his Bible on every shift and modeled behavior worthy of Christ.

He was a good man. May he rest in peace in the company of God.
