Marsha thinking of you in the loss of your mom. Cousin Sandra called and checked on me after both of my surgeries and told me the the things to do and not to do. She had a lot of memories to share about the family and laughed telling the stories about them. She also loved all of her family and kept in contact whenever possible. Thoughts and prayers are with you.

Marcia I know how you feel right now. The memories I will always cherish being around the family. I miss those days when the family was always together for family dinners and just for the fun. I'm here for you cousin and I'm praying for all of you.
