“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.

“ To the family, My sincere condolences in the passing of Sanna. Please find comfort in the words of Psalms 90:10, "The span of our life is 70 years, or 80 if one is especially strong. But they are filled with trouble and sorrow; they quickly pass by, and away we fly." Life is short. Sanna was exceptionally strong to reach the age of 89. Paradise awaits her. (Luke 23;43). “ My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences to all of you for the loss of your loved one. It is our hope that in some small way during this difficult time we may comfort you as we have been comforted by what the Bible reveals to us about those who have died. Almighty God's only begotten son, Jesus Christ promises that one day he is personally going to bring back to life all those who have died, just as he did when he was a man on earth (John 5:28, 29; John 11:43,44). This promise is a reality and sure hope that we can trust will happen (Jeremiah 17:7). Until that glorious day may this hope strengthen and comfort you with whatever trials come your way. Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.
