

Sarina L. Young

March 19, 1967 - November 22, 2016

Sarina Lorraine "Peaches" Best Young, daughter of Evelyn and James Wilson, was born on Sunday, March 19, 1967 in Seaford, Delaware. She attended school in the Woodbridge School District in Bridgeville, Delaware. At the age of 19, Peaches relocated and became a resident of the State of Florida, living in Bradenton. She passed away at Manatee Memorial Hospital, after a long illness, on Tuesday, November 22, 2016.

Peaches loved music and all types of hymns and enjoyed writing. She could write a four or five page letter.

Sarina professed her faith in Jesus Christ, always praising and thanking God; speaking of Him, often.

Peaches leaves to mourn her loss her parents, Evelyn and James Wilson, four children; three daughters; Nicole Best, Ashley Solomon of Detroit, Michigan, Tiffany Young of Valdosta, Georgia and Cortney Young of Douglas, Georgia and ten grandchildren. Peaches is also survived by one brother, Elik Best of Dover, Delaware; one sister, Angela (John) Tilghman of Dover, Delaware and a special nephew, John Tilghman, IV "Little Slugger" and many cousins.
