“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.

“ Words seem so empty and powerless when it comes to loss. It's that much more difficult when it's someone young, vibrant, and full of life. I was so saddened to hear of Boo's unexpected transition. The void & pain of losing someone we love never goes away. We simply learn to live with it. Family, I hope you know just how loved and adored Boo was by many. May you find comfort in the memories of her. May you hear her laughter and funny comments when times get difficult. Hold on to her voice, hold on to your memories, but most importantly hold on to each other when it seems unbearable. You will get through it...together. May you never forget how amazingly honored you and I were to have known her!! Rest well with the Ancestors Boo! We look forward to reuniting with you one day. Much love to those left to mourn her loss. Take care..Tricia Johnson & Family

“ I am truly sorry to read of the untimely passing of your loved one, Shanelle. She will be missed. Death is never an easy thing to accept, especially when it is someone very near and dear to your heart. James 4:8 invites you to "Draw close to God and he will draw close to you." I sincerely invite your family to do so by means of prayer and he will surely sustain you now as well as the delicate days ahead. Please take care.

“ Dear Family, though your hearts are heavy with pain right now, over the loss of your dear loved one, but know that our heavenly Father did not leave you without hope. God did not create mankind to suffer the sting of death. He lovingly provided hope of one day being reunited with our loved ones. Acts 24:15; Revelation 21:4; Hosea 13:14. I sincerely express my deepest sympathy. \t

“ My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one with the hope that we can in some small way comfort you with what the Bible reveals to us about GOOD NEWS from Almighty God. As recorded in the Bible, God\u2019s only-begotten son, Jesus promises that one day he is personally going to bring back to life all those who have died, just as he did when he was on earth as a man (John 5:28, 29; 11:43, 44). What a glorious and almost unbelievable day that will be! It\u2019s a reality and a sure hope we can rely on because it is absolutely impossible for God to lie (Titus 1:2; Isaiah 55:10, 11). My wife and I are confident you will be encouraged and comforted by the marvelous hope God has in store for us (Psalm 1:1-3; John 17:3). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.
