“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ Thank you for your friendship. The last time we saw each other, you grabbed me and hugged me. I'll never forget how you could make me laugh so easily and your visits talking with John and me and reminding us how you didn't like dogs as you rubbed Mandy and later Romeo too after we'd brought him home. Praying for everyone missing you. We love you and will miss you.
