“ For Monica

I worked many years with your mom. she always raved about you and Micah. Our birthdays were just days apart and some years we would share a lunch and play at the Harrington Casino. I am sorry for her passing.

“ Hello Monica

Your mom and mine (Claretha Jackson) were good friends. I was sad to hear the news of her passing. May God Comfort you and your family during these 'rough' times. I've been there with my mom... grief, aftercare, managing her estate, etc. It's a lot but, you will get through it. The pain does get easier... day by day.

God bless and if there's anything I can do, please let me know.

“ To Monica and family, our prayers are with you and family .We miss Sharon and will miss the warrior spirit of my sister.She was always there for women's prison ministry, prayer warrior until the end ,she was there to serve. The laughs we had and the way she'd keep us laughing. We will miss our sister and love her always.

“ Sharon, we had a lot of good times together, we laughed, we cried and we were sisters to the end. It hurts me that I was unable to talk to you in your final days (oh how I tried multiple times but no answer). I will always love you and you will forever be missed in my heart. Love, Regina

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy in the loss of your loved one. Death is an enemy to us all, but the bible gives us hope for the future. Acts 24:15 tells us that there is going to be a resurrection of the dead, which gives us hope of seeing our loved ones again. Revelation 21:4 tells us that soon death, tears, mourning and pain will be done away with. Please take comfort in the bible during your time of grief and may the God of all comfort grant your entire family peace.
