Obituary

Sharon Lynn Fay Polk, affectionately known as "Fay," departed this life on January 27, 2017 at MedStar Southern Maryland Hospital in Clinton, Maryland. She was born on September 19, 1958 to the late Walter and Lillie Polk.

Fay was educated in the public school System in Trenton, New Jersey. She continued her education at Salisbury University, receiving a Bachelor of Science Degree in 1981. She was employed by Swanson Middle School in Arlington, VA. after teaching at several other schools throughout the D.C. Metropolitan area.

Fay joined Victory Christian Ministries International of Suitland, Maryland and was a faithful member for 20+ years. During her membership, Fay held the position of Deacon and Evangelist. She was an instructor in the Victory Bible College, a member of the Dance Ministry and the Children's Ministry. Fay loved serving God and helping others with a warm and gentle spirit that was sure to melt your heart. Fay's busy hands made her a loved and cherished member of Victory Christian Ministries International.

Fay leaves to cherish fond memories: one sister, Antoinette Polk of Laurel,

Maryland; one brother, Walter Andre Polk of Columbus, Ohio; three nieces, Shanice (Mervin) Delawder, Andrea Polk and Andrea Green; four nephews, Khaliq Polk, Terence Polk, Jason Polk (Carol Beltran) and Andre Polk; one great nephew, Dareen Delawder; four aunts, Lucille Jones, Lottie Moses, Jennie Chase (Percy) and Elsie Collins; one uncle, David Polk (Joyce), all of Princess Anne, Maryland; one sister-in-law, Leslie Polk and a host of cousins, other relatives and friends.
