“ Please accept my condolence. My heart goes out to you in your time of sorrow. May you find comforting Job 14:14, 15, which says, “If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning.”

“ I am very sorry for your loss. It can be hard for friends and family to find the right words to say. Thankfully, we can echo the reassuring words that we read in the Bible. At Revelation 21:4 it tells us that the God of all comfort will soon do away with all suffering, sickness, tears, and death. John 5: 28, 29 tells us that at that time God will even undo the effects of death. This will re-unite us with our loved ones once again. Until then, may your loving memories of Shelly bring you comfort during this difficult time. Your family has my sincerest condolences.
