“ Please accept my deepest sympathy. There are no words that can ease your pain at this time. However, may it bring you a measure of comfort to know there are others who truly care about what you are going through. The Holy Scriptures tell us God, "is close to the brokenhearted; He saves those who are crushed in spirit." So, "throw your anxiety on him, because he cares for you." (Psalms 34:18) (1 Peter 5:7)

“ Extending deepest sympathy to family and friends in this time of sorrow. Please take comfort in knowing that soon all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out (John 5:28,29). Until that blessed day, may the GOD of all comfort grant you peace (2 Cor. 1:3,4) while many fond memories of Shena warm your hearts.

“ I had the pleasure of working with Shena at the Milford Diner several years ago. She was always so much fun. After I left the Diner, I would occasionally bump into her around Milford.....mostly at Walmart. She would always take time to stop and talk for a few minutes. I most recently saw her about a month ago....she was as friendly and beautiful as she had always been. What a horrible loss. My prayers go out to her mother, her children, and the rest of her family.
May they find peace and comfort and cherish the beautiful memories of a beautiful woman.
Rest in peace, Shena.

“ Dear Friend

*Today is the day you will be laid to rest,
But you know what they say,
God only takes the best.
Everything happens for a reason,
Even if we may not agree.
Just promise to look after us,
And if you can,
Save a spot up there for me.
The thought of never seeing you again brings tears to my eyes,
And even more so,
Because all of this was such a surprise.
But we should never question what God has planned,
Sometimes it's not meant for us to understand.
So as we sit here and mourn the loss of a beloved friend,
We have to keep telling ourselves that we will meet again.
I am so sorry I will keep you all in my prayer's.*
