

Shenika Monae' Glover

July 28, 1995 - July 11, 2020

Shenika Monaé Glover, was born on Friday, July 28, 1995, in Seaford, Delaware, to Cassandra M. Glover and Danel Drummond. Shenika passed on Saturday, July 11, 2020, at Nanticoke Memorial Hospital, in Seaford, Delaware. Shenika attended School in the Cape Henlopen School District in her early years. In 2013, she graduated from Goshen Center High School, in Troy, Alabama. Shenika worked for Hickman Cleaning Business. Her passion was working private duty with the elderly.

Who was Shenika Glover? She was a daughter, a sister, a mother, a niece, a cousin and a friend to many. Shenika loved her family, most importantly her children. She often showed it with random calls, texts, visits and Facebook shoutouts. She appreciated the time she spent with her mother, father, children, brother and friends. She was a kind-hearted, outgoing, gentle person. She had a sweet and shy personality with a heart of gold. Her famous quote was, "Right mom, right mom".

Shenika was preceded in death by her paternal grandmother, Brenda Drummond and maternal grandfather, James Glover, Sr.

Shenika's spirit is carried on by her two children, Kevin Jones and Cassidy Glover; mother, Cassandra Glover; father, Danel Drummond; brother, DeAndre Glover; grandmother, Mary Glover; great-grandmother, Mary Rogers; a very special friend, Dajah Barnhart; godmother, Mary Ann “Sissy” Brittingham; two aunts, Chonice Glover and Ervette Drummond; one uncle, James E. Glover, Jr.; one niece, Jaiella Brunson cousins and friends.