

Sheralyn Robinson Short

July 6, 1961 - July 27, 2021

Sheralyn Samantha Robinson Short, a.k.a. Manny, was born on 6 July 1960, in Milford, Delaware, to Sherman Robinson and Verie L. Adams Robinson.

Samantha's early spiritual teaching came first from home, then later from Bethel A.M.E. Church in Milford, Delaware, under the leadership of Reverend Joseph Tull. She was a faithful member of A.W.I.N., under the leadership of Pastor Phyllis Cannon.

Samantha was educated in the Milford School District and was a cheerleader for the Buccaneer's. Her early childhood was great until she was hit by an intoxicated driver, which left her disabled for 43 years. The doctors wanted to insert a plate in her head due to the bone that was broken, but she refused. Samantha told the doctors and her family that God would heal her. As a result of the accident, Samantha wore a specially-made helmet for protection.

Samantha leaves to cherish her memories and to rejoice in her homegoing, her husband of 17 years, Donald Short of Dover, DE; sons, Douglas Forman of Salisbury, MD and Justin Forman of Felton, DE; daughter, Jazmine Forman; grandchildren, Angel Forman of Dover, DE, Syncere Forman of Dover, DE Harlem Forman of Salisbury, MD and Lyric Forman of Dover, DE; brothers, Irvan Adams of Dover, DE, Carlton Adams of Camden, DE and Richard Adams of Dover, DE; sisters, Carolynn Adams (Russell) of Milford, DE, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Lovingly submitted,
The Family
