

Sherry Vanette Graddic (Brown)

April 26, 1963 - October 23, 2017

Sherry Vanette Brown Graddic passed away peacefully on Monday, October 23, 2017, after a long illness, at the University of Penn Hospital, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Sherry was born on April 26, 1963, in Seaford, Delaware. She attended Delmar Senior High School and later made her residence in Dover, Delaware.

She attended Front Line Ministries, Dover, DE and later became an active devoted member of the United Deliverance Bible Center in Laurel, Delaware.

Sherry attended Delaware Technical and Community College in Dover, Delaware for medical billing and coding and the Harris School of Business, where she achieved her associates degree.

She worked at Perdue in Salisbury, Maryland, Kraft Foods in Dover, Delaware, Walmart and the FSNB as a Bank Manager, both in Dover.

Sherry was the caring and loving mother of three sons, Jarrod T. Cann, Jonathan P. Graddic, and Joseph R Graddic, one daughter, Stefanie L. Graddic, and one grandson A'Jeir Butcher. Sherry loved going to church, listening to gospel music, traveling, spending endless time with her sons, cooking, and enjoying life with family.

Sherry touched the lives of everyone she met with her loving smile, kind spiritual words and joyful spirit. She kept the faith and that trademark until the very end of her journey.

Sherry was born one of fourteen children to the late Preston and Ledella Brown. Preceding her in death are Vennison L. Brown, Betty M. Stanley and Preston A. Brown, Jr. She will be greatly missed by her loving brothers and sisters, Grisbeth L. Brown, Anna M. Hotten, William N. Brown, Verlon C. Brown, James A. Brown, Connie Hitchens, Thelma M. Batson, Gregory L. Brown, Sandra D. Smith and Tony H. Brown. Sherry will be forever treasured by all her nieces, nephews and other family and friends who were blessed to have known her.

“ I would like to offer my condolences for your loss. I hope you will find comfort in knowing that Jehovah, the God of all comfort, will soon eliminate all grief and provide permanent consolation when “all those in the memorial tombs will hear [Christ’s] voice and come out”! (John 5:28, 29) God promises that “he will do away with death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.” (Isa. 25:8) Then, instead of having to “weep with those who weep,” all earth’s inhabitants will “rejoice with those who rejoice.”—Rom. 12:15.

“ In this difficult time may the God of all comfort and his promises of the time when there will be no more death and we can again enjoy life with those we have lost bring you comfort. (Isaiah 25:8; John 5:28, 29)
