

Shiheem Tayquan Durham

January 12, 2002 - February 25, 2020

Shiheem Tay'Quan Orlando Durham, affectionally known as "Heemie", suddenly departed this life on Tuesday, February 25, 2020. He was born on Saturday, January 12, 2002 to Shaquanna Durham and Devin Glover, of Dover, Delaware.

Heemie attended school in the Capital School District and was employed at McDonalds.

Heemie loved his children and was a good father. He was devoted to his younger siblings, Sincere, Ondre and Khamiah. Heemie enjoyed sports, especially football and basketball. He was a member of Dover AAU basketball team and he played football for several years with the Pop-Warner football league and the Stallions Traveling Football Team.

Heemie had a very special relationship with his mother. Some would even call him a "momma's boy". Heemie would show that winning smile and shake his head. Heemie's love ones feel that he left this earth way too soon, but we accept the fact that God makes no mistakes, so rest in peace, Heemie.

Heemie was preceded in death by his aunt, Sharon Tolson; cousin Richard Tolson and uncle, Donnell Hill.

Heemie is survived by his children, Prynce Jones and Mehlaya Durham; parents, Shaquanna Durham and Devin Glover; stepfather, Cortez Wright; grandparents, Lorraine Durham, Claude Tolson, Charlene Tolson, Vicki Jeter and David Glover; great-grandparents, Ella Mae Tolson and Essie Durham; girlfriend, Twanicia Jones; siblings, Sincere Wright, Ondre Dudley, Jr., Khamiah Hanzer, Jasir Glover, Radeim Glover, Ambition Parker, Omega Smith and Malachi Moore; aunts, Latisha Durham (Eddie), Tawanna Ericksen (Mike), Natasha Jeter, Erica Bryan, Latia Norris and Ciera Mosley; special aunt, Barbra Tolson; uncles, Alex Durham, Donta Durham, James Durham, Robert Ingram, Jeff Tolson and Larry Norris; his child's mother, Heven Jones; and a host of cousins, great aunts, uncles and friends.
