

Shirley Mae Cropper (Singletary)

December 22, 1932 - February 3, 2020

Shirley Mae Singletary was born on Thursday, December 22, 1932, to Monroe Singletary and Margie Cropper, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Shirley was lovingly raised by Elizabeth Dredde in Bridgeville, Delaware. Shirley passed away on Monday, February 3, 2020, at Nanticoke Memorial Hospital in Seaford, Delaware.

Shirley was educated at the Phyllis Wheatley School (now known as Phillis Wheatley School) in Bridgeville, Delaware.

Shirley retired as a Machine Operator from Maryland Plastics, Inc. in Federalsburg, Maryland.

Shirley was a member of Mt. Calvary United Methodist Church in earlier years and later joined Williams Chapel Church, both located in Bridgeville, Delaware.

She loved to crochet. She was a member of, and truly loved, the Bridgeville Cheer Center (now The Georgetown Cheer Adult Center) and enjoyed attending, when able.

Shirley enjoyed the company of her many friends and always appreciated the concern and care of her surviving daughter, Helena.

Shirley was preceded in death by a daughter, Alfredia E. Jones.

Shirley leaves to cherish her memory, one daughter, Helena Z. Jones-Puryear; son-in-law, Willie M. Puryear; grandchildren, Robert Lee Jones, Terry LaMont Jones (Sandra); other grandchildren, Teresa Puryear-Armstrong, Willie Puryear, Jr. and Robert Puryear; great-grandchildren, Demetra (Alicia), Trayvahnn, William, Martzha (Shaq); special great-grandchildren, Terry II and Terrin Jones; 11 great-great grandchildren; and a special friend, Helena Perkins.

Lovingly Submitted,
The Family
