“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ I've hesitated to write this condolences of some kind of comfort to you and family. Now more than ever Steven and I will cherish more dearly than ever before. Sincere is a kind gentle soul that came into Stevens life at Fruitland Elementary School. Steven was new there and a kind hand on his shoulder made him turn and there was dear Sincere. Sincere said new here and Steven said yes and Sincere said want me to show you around. And so their friendship began. We so loved having Sincere with us. He's a kind gentle soul young man and there are no words to comfort family but Sincere will always be in our hearts forever. Hearts are broken. We are honored and blessed to share time with him and his presence will forever be in our home and hearts. God bless you and give you and family strength at this time of grief and mourning. All are in our prayers 💔

“ To Sincere's loved ones, I am very sorry for your loss of such a bright, kind, and mischievous kid. I had known Sincere back in high school at Hebron, and he sat next to me during Chem. and was always such a great help as both a colleague and friend. I want to thank you for letting us meet and be such good friends. I couldn't believe it, when I had first heard about Sincere's passing from a mutual friend of ours. I honestly still couldn't accept the thought that such a thing had happened. I checked almost everyday for news to make sure nothing would appear, but today. I checked again today, and there it was. Several links with Sincere's name, birthday, Ellicott City, and his age. At the tender age of 17, Sincere Melvin had passed away. He was such a great friend and person that I can't even imagine how it must feel to lose him as a child, a family member, a loved one. I am so very sorry for your loss, and I hope you all the best in recovery. Rest in peace Sincere, I hope you find peace where you may be.

“ My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one. All of us have experienced the pain of death in some way sad to say. And, so, at difficult times like this we are confronted with the stark reality of how precious and fragile life can surely be (James 4:14). So, my wife and I send this condolence to you with the hope that we can in some small way comfort you as it has comforted us with what the Bible reveals to us about GOOD NEWS from Almighty God.

As recorded in the Bible, God's only-begotten son, Jesus promises that one day he is personally going to bring back to life all those who have died, just as he did when he was on earth as a man (John 5:28, 29; 11:43, 44). Just as death is an enemy to us, it is also an enemy to God (1 Corinthians 15:26). For that reason, as well as others, He promises to remove FOREVER all the pain, suffering, wickedness, and DEATH that mankind has had to endure for thousands of years (Revelation 21:3-5; Psalm 37:10, 11, 29). What a glorious and almost unbelievable day that will be! It's a reality and a sure hope we can rely on because it is absolutely impossible for God to lie (Titus 1:2; Isaiah 55:10, 11).

It is our hope that you NOT take our word for what has been written in this condolence; but that you read and accept what God's Word, the Bible says. We encourage you to please take a moment to read and meditate on all these referenced scriptures in your own Bible (1 Timothy 4:15, 16). My wife and I are confident you will be encouraged and comforted by the marvelous hope God has in store for us (Psalm 1:1-3; John 17:3). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.

“ No words are adequate for this moment but I am praying for you constantly that the God of all comfort will encompass you with His love, grace, strength and compassionate comfort. I travelled this journey 6 months ago when my son, a Mt Hebron and Meyerhoff graduate, went to heaven. I'd like to think he welcomed Sincere home to heaven with hugs and a smile. May God keep you in his care.
