

St. Clair Oliver Banks

February 28, 1925 - October 20, 2013

On Sunday evening October 20, 2013, God in his infinite compassions and understanding, took the soul of our beloved St. Clair Oliver Banks to eternal rest. Born in Eden, Maryland on February 28, 1925 he was the eldest son of the late Robert Rayfield Banks, Sr. and Dorothy Anna Grooms.

St. Clair was educated in The Wicomico County Public Schools and Graduated from Salisbury High School, formerly known as Salisbury Colored School.

In 1945, he was drafted in the U.S. Army serving his country during World War II. After his honorable discharge from the army, he was united in holy Matrimony to Lillie Mae White, from this union, four children were born.

He was employed at General Motors in New York, for several years as an Auto Assembler. He possessed a sprit of an entrepreneur and started his own contracting business Do-All-Bro's, as a interior, exterior designers for thirty two years and also Master Carpentry.

He was a lifetime member of Friendship United Methodist Church in Allen, Maryland; where he served on the Men's Choir. He also was a member of the Chamber of Commerce in White Plains, New York, for fifteen years and served as a Boy Scout Master for five years. St. Clair was very Family oriented to his caring wife, family and friends. His enjoyments included gardening and mastering wood with his hands.

Those left to cherish the many loving memories of his life are: his devoted wife Deborah Banks of Salisbury, Maryland; one son David of Florida; one daughter Joyce Davis (Victor) Middletown, New York; step-son Darryl Sinkfield (Nora) of Springfield, MA; one step-daughter. Renee, Sinkfield, Arlington, Virginia; twelve grandchild; eighteen great-grandchildren; four step-grandchildren; one brother Robert Rayfield Banks, Jr. of Eden, Maryland and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by a wife Lillie Mae, a son Leighton, daughter Jeanette, sisters Dorothy, Mary, Vera and Roberta "Bobbie".

Lovingly Submitted ~The Family
