

Stanley Oliver Davis Sr.

February 5, 1941 - June 22, 2021

Stanley Oliver Davis, Sr., was born in Millsboro, Delaware, to William Wesley Davis and Phoebe Thompson Davis, on February 5, 1941.

William and Phoebe's union produced five children, William "Bill", Maryland, Stanley, Preston and Joan. Stanley passed away on Tuesday, June 22, 2021.

Stanley worked in carpentry for most of his life. His first employment was with John Collins Company then, on to logging with Robert Jennings, for countless years. Stanley was often found fishing, making jewelry and gardening. In Stanley's last days, he enjoyed sitting under the shade tree, shooting-the-breeze with family and friends, cooking a special meal, and taking long and peaceful drives along the scenic routes of Millsboro.

Stanley leaves to cherish his memory, his son, Stanley O. Davis, Jr. (Tiny Tim); brothers, William "Bill" and Preston; and sister, Joan.

He also leaves grandchildren, Shaunna Mumford, Stanley Mumford, Tykia Weston and Kyla Dixon; along with a host of great grandchildren, nieces and nephews; as well as a very close friend, Billy Jackson, who will also cherish his memory.
