STANLEY'S LIFE STORY

Stanley Lemuel Mitchell, at the age of eighty (80), passed away at Manokin Manor Nursing Home in Princess Anne, Maryland. While growing up in Wetipquin, Maryland, he received his education in Wicomico County Public Schools. Born on October 1, 1944, he was the beloved son of the late Robert and Ocie Mitchell.

He worked at J. Roland Dashiell, Burnett White, Salisbury Steele, a housekeeper at PGH, and finally retired from Deer's Head Hospital in Salisbury, Maryland. Stanley started a Van Club with family and friends, with CB handles—Setting Hen, Zebra Lady, Bandit, Cold Duck, Boot/Boot, Denny, Dude and Bibbi just to name a few.

In 2009, Stanley married Marie Layton of Salisbury, Maryland. Stanley was self-taught Mechanic who loved working on cars, building decks and trailers, completing home improvements and shooting dice and pool. Playing cards, early mornings, at McDonalds with friends and family, and enjoying thirsty Thursday at the VFW in Salisbury, Stanley was the life of the party at any gathering or family event, where he would be seen easily cutting a rug.

Stanley leaves to cherish his loving memories: his five daughters, Ronette of Baltimore, Maryland and Geraldine, Angelleek (Johnny), Shawanne and Latonya, all of Salisbury, Maryland; his two sons, Terrace (Crystal) of Baltimore, Maryland and Rodney of Salisbury, Maryland; his seventeen (17) grandchildren; (39) great grandchildren; his siblings, Bobby (Anne), Yolanda (Tommy), Lonnie and Diane, all of Salisbury, Maryland; a special friend, Leroy and a host of nieces, nephews, close friends and cousins.

He was preceded in death by: his wife, Marie; parents, Robert and Ocie Mitchell; his son, Stanley, Jr.; great-grandson, Jarrell; son-in-law, Kevin and siblings, Cleo, Valerie, Phyllis (Zebra Lady), Leon and Wayne.

May God Bless Each of You!

“ Condolences to The Mitchell Family. Stanley always had a smile on his face and a pleasant word when I encountered him working at Deers Head. Death is only the beginning if one believes in God Almighty' promise.
