

Stanley Lee Morris

April 19, 1943 - February 10, 2018

Stanley Lee Morris, was born on April 19, 1943, in Cape Charles, Virginia to his proud parents Elvira and Elemit Morris. He was one of three children of this union. He served in the United States Army as a Communication Specialist during the Vietnam War era. He worked as a Postal Clerk in the United States Postal Service for over 40 years.

Stanley had a love for life. He was very friendly and sociable. His passions were photography, cooking, gardening, tennis, world history, politics, camping, cycling, reading and civil rights activism. He lived his life to the fullest. He was an active participant in the famous March on Washington in Washington, DC, on August 28, 1963. Throughout his active life he supported and marched for justice for the underserved of our society. He was very adamant about the issues that faced people of color and was determined to be part of the solution.

He was fondly called “Stan the Man”. What you saw is what you got! His laughter and love for the simple things in life is what made him unique. Undoubtedly, he was loved by many. Stanley enjoyed spending time with his family. He loved all of his children and believed that they all had greatness within them.

Stanley is survived by his wife, Antoinette Morris; children, Stanley Morris Jr.,

Lakiesha Morris, Elemit Morris, Jumaane Morris, Akilah Morris and Randy Crosby-Morris; two sisters, Pauline Morris-Taylor and Gloria Morris-Snipes; and a host of grandchildren, nieces, nephews and friends.

To send flowers to the family or plant a tree in memory of Stanley Lee Morris, please visit our Heartfelt Sympathies Store.

Tribute Wall

HM

“ To The Family of Stanley Morris,

Our thoughts and prayers are with you during this time. May God comfort you in your time of need.

James & Helena Monroe

Helena Monroe - March 02, 2018 at 12:00 AM

DH

“ To the family of Stanley Morris, we are sorry for your loss of such a dear loved one. Peace and Blessings upon you at this difficult time. Always thinking of you.

Drs. Howard and Jeanie Hall - February 27, 2018 at 12:00 AM

AF

“ I am sorry for your loss. I know this is a difficult time for your family, and I hope the scripture in the bible at Rev 21. 3,4 will be of comfort to you,

A friend - February 23, 2018 at 12:00 AM

WA

“ THE FORMER STUDENTS OF WILLIAM HENRY HIGH SCHOOL WISH TO OFFER OUR SINCERE SYMPATHY TO THE FAMILY OF STANLEY MORRIS. MAY YOUR MEMORIES BE OF COMFORT IN THE DAYS AHEAD.

WHHS ALUMNI ASSOCIATION - February 21, 2018 at 12:00 AM

AW

“ To the family of my Uncle Stanley, God bless you and may you find happiness in the memories that you have.

Angela

Angela Morris Williams - February 16, 2018 at 12:00 AM

TW

“ Sorry For Your Loss!

Thomas & Libby Widgeon - February 15, 2018 at 12:00 AM

GR

“ My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one. We send this condolence with the sure hope the Bible provides all of us at difficult times like this.

As recorded in the Bible, God's only-begotten son, Jesus promises that one day he is personally going to bring back to life all those who have died (John 5:28, 29; 11:43, 44). As death is an enemy to us, it is also an enemy to Almighty God (1 Corinthians 15:26). For that reason, as well as others, He promises to remove from this earth FOREVER all the pain, suffering, wickedness, and DEATH that mankind has had to endure for thousands of years (Revelation 21:3-5; Psalm 37:10, 11, 29). What a glorious day that will surely be!
It's a reality and a sure hope that we can trust in because it is absolutely impossible for God to lie (Titus 1:2).

My wife and I sincerely encourage you to look up and meditate on these noted scriptures in your own Bible (1 Timothy 4:15, 16; 2 Timothy 3:16, 17). You will surely be encouraged and comforted by the marvelous hope our Grand Creator has in store for us (John 17:3). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.

George & Christine Ragusa - February 15, 2018 at 12:00 AM

IR

“ Sorry for the passing of your love one. Read Psalms 34:18 for words of comfort and peace.

Irene - February 15, 2018 at 12:00 AM

JO

“ *Dear Family
Wishing you peace to bring comfort, courage to face the days ahead and loving memories to forever hold in your heart. My prayers are with you and your family.*

JoyceA - February 15, 2018 at 12:00 AM