“ it is an injustice that his obituary did not reflect his life. He was a WWII veteran who protected the the world; that we live in and if we did not succeed we would be speaking japonese right now. The people that love him, including, his son, step sons, grand daughters, stepgranddaughters, have always been proud of that fact. Unfortunately, we have to mourn him in our own ways within our own hearts because we have not been given the opportunity to enjoy the last years. We love you Stash. xoxo Kim & Val Tom Kenny and Eddie

“ I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your loved one. Please accept my deepest sympathy in your time of grief. Death is an enemy to mankind, but Almighty God promises that He is going to remove death, sickness and pain forever. (Revelation 21:3&4) Please take comfort in the scriptures at this time and may your entire family be strengthened and blessed.

“ Please accept my heartfelt sympathies for your loss. We all look forward to the near future when the earth will be a renewed paradise and death will be no more. (Rev 21:3,4)

“ I am sorry to read about your loss. May God's words in the Bible at Ps 34:18 provide you comfort. The scriptures tells us "HE" is near to those broken at heart, and those crushed in spirit HE saves.
