STANLEY'S JOURNEY

Stanley Miles Smith, Jr. was born on November 6, 1959 and departed his life on November 16, 2021. He was the son of Cleola Smith of Westover, Maryland and the late Stanley Miles Smith, Sr.

Raised on the Eastern Shore of Maryland, Stanley was destined to leave home and go on a great adventure that would change his life forever. Always one willing to experience new challenges, Stanley gave his all in any endeavor he decided to pursue.

Stanley graduated from Somerset County public schools. He served in the military along with his cousin, John Smith and honorably served in the United States Marine Corps from October 1979 ~ October 1983. When he returned from his stint of duty, he went straight to the farm in James City County, Virginia, beginning his day at 5:00 a.m. each morning.

On the farm, Stanley began another new adventure of milking cows on a large farm with his cousins, under the supervision of his Uncle Marion (his father's brother) whom he called Unc. He worked with Peter and Joe milking cows and with his cousin Marnie hunting.

Stanley joined The Church of God at Williamstown under the pastorship of his cousin, Elder Howard W. Smith, Sr. Stanley was a comical person, always making us laugh at his stories. After several years he returned home to the Eastern Shore of Maryland where he passed away. He is sadly missed by his family, friends, cousins and all who knew him.

He leaves to mourn his passing: his mother, Cleola Smith of Westover, Maryland; siblings, Vanessa Smith Handy of Rehoboth Road in Westover, Maryland, Kennedy Smith, Sr. of Salisbury, Maryland and Lisa Marie Smith of Westover, Maryland; his children, Elijah Smith and wife Shireen Smith, Fernando Joynes, Miyeshi Joynes and Brianna Smith; grandchildren, Adriana, Shireen, Tori, Cameren, Amber and Stanley Smith IV and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
