

Stephon D. Johnson

February 7, 1989 - April 1, 2018

Stephon Johnson was born February 7, 1989, to Naomi “Sis” Johnson and the late Carter Kellam. He suddenly departed this life April 1, 2018.

Stephon received his GED and did laboring and contract work. He was an avid reader and continued to educate himself through reading. He also loved his family and his children. Stephon especially loved to do the same things his older brother Cartier did, such as basketball and karate. Stephon was a fighter, in a good way, and he would do anything for you. He always helped people and was a firm believer that you had to give in order to get back. He was funny, hilarious, and comical and enjoyed making people laugh. Stephon was a go-getter; the very driving force in the family who kept everyone motivated and encouraged to always do and be their best.

Stephon leaves to cherish his memories, his mother, Naomi Johnson; two daughters, Jhurnee Harris and Janiyah Johnson; brothers, Thomas “Butter” Johnson, Cartier Johnson, and Ryshee Lane, Jr.; sisters, Tyhesha Johnson and Sophelia Yandell (Tommy); nieces and nephews, Davien, Dayona, Danya, Daykir, Kenturi, Cartier Jr., Cartrell, Doriyea, Kweli, Cequiel, Wyatt, Aaron, and Gio; along with a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.
