

Susan Davis Bease

July 19, 1938 - January 31, 2015

Mrs. Susan Davis Bease, was born in Marion, South Carolina on July 19, 1938. She was the youngest daughter of eleven children born from parents Henry Davis and Queen Esther Robinson Davis. She was married to Welcome Bease and out of their union was born four boys; Julian "Big Poe" Bease, Ralph "Sly" Bease, Randolph "Pickles" Bease, and Roosevelt "Dennis" Bease her youngest and only living son.

She was a native of Baltimore, Maryland but was educated and born in South Carolina. She worked for 28 years at the Government Printing Office in Washington, D.C. and was later promoted to become a supervisor in her department. After her retirement, she moved to Seaford, Delaware and enjoyed spending her time with all her grandchildren and also adopted two of them; Johnathan Dickerson and Elizabeth Miller. She also raised her granddaughter Teonya Fletcher.

She was a loving mother, sister, and grandmother who always put her family and friends first. She was a devoted Christian who loved the Lord. She also leave to mourn her sister Angela Bennett, brother Roosevelt Davis, step-daughter Annette Bease, grandchildren; Rochelle Bease, Shawn Mack, Danielle Bease, Erica Bease, Icechalla Bease and all other surviving grandchildren and a host of family and friends that she always showed nothing but true love and devotion.

Lovingly Submitted

The Family

To send flowers to the family or plant a tree in memory of Susan Davis Bease, please visit our Heartfelt Sympathies Store.