

Sylvia Ann Berry

August 2, 1945 - January 22, 2013

Sylvia Ann Berry (known to most as “Puddin”) of Chestertown, MD, the daughter of the late Arthur Chatt and Rebecca Munson, departed this life on January 23, 2013 at the Hospice of Queen Anne's County at the age of 67.

Sylvia graduated with honors from Garnett High School in Chestertown, MD. She then continued her education at Harvard Memorial General Nursing School where she obtained her License Practical Nursing degree in 1967. She then attended Wor-Wic Tech Nursing School where she obtained her Bachelors of Science degree in Nursing in 1973.

Sylvia was very determined and hardworking. She worked at Kent & Queen Anne’s Hospital for several years as the Medical Surgical Coordinator. She was the Director of Nursing at Magnolia Hall and Corsica Hills Nursing Homes. She also taught CNA classes at Chesapeake Community College. She enjoyed watching Jeopardy and Law and Order.

She is preceded in death by two brothers, Arthur Chatt and Bernard Chatt; one sister, Lillian Chatt and one great-grandson, Lalan Rush.

She leaves to cherish her memory her loving husband of 48 years, William Berry; three sons, Michael Berry (Mesha) of Odenton, MD, Mark Berry, Sr. (Terri) and James Berry both of Chestertown, MD; one daughter, Melissa

Berry (Harold Sisco) of Chestertown, MD; 11 grandchildren, Mark Jr., Brittany, Malcolm, Matthew, Khorl, Ashleigh, Tyrone, Travonte, Jayla, Noah and Cianna; one goddaughter, Sherry Hicks; four sisters, Rebecca Demby (Bernard) of Chestertown, MD, Veronica Reynolds of Randallstown, MD, Geraldine Munson and Janey Barrett both of Chestertown, MD; two brothers-in-law, Morris Goldsborough of Chestertown, MD and Thomas Goldsborough of Easton, MD; four sisters-in-law, Maxine Griffin of Philadelphia, PA, Bridget Goldsborough of Chestertown, MD, Lenora Simms and Margo Chatt of Chestertown, MD; two very best friends, Angela Hunley of Stockbridge, GA and Maxine Harper of Chestertown, MD; two special honorary sons, Darryl Deaton and Arlington Phillips and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.