“ My love you will forever be missed!! You took very good care of my babies when they were at your daycare. You were always that light through the storm rest now”

“ Please accept my condolences on the loss of lovely Sylvia. I was Dr. Bryan's office nurse and have very fond long-ago memories of her and of the rest of the family. Patrick, Leonie, and Norah, you were children then but I remember you and your father well, too. Sylvia and I would often have long chats in the office and she was truly a delightful person. I'm sorry you have lost her. Best regards and thoughts from Maurine.”

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."”

God promises: “I will change their mourning into exultation, and I will comfort them and make them rejoice away from their grief.” Jeremiah 31:13-17. The Bible, gives us true hope for the dead and consolation for the living. Acts 24:15; Revelation 20:12-14; 21:1-4. Ms Woodson
