“ To the Pendleton family,
Please accept my heartfelt condolences for your loss. I did not know Mrs Pendleton personally; however, I was reading the newspaper online when i came across her obit.
I lost my father three weeks ago. It is truly a very painful experience to lose a loved one in death. What keeps me bright and my hope alive is knowing that soon I will see my father again.
Almighty God Jehovah has promised us the resurrection hope; a time when loved ones such as Sylvia will be raised up back to life in conditions free from sickness and death (John 5:28,29; Revelation 21:4). It is a sure hope!!! Almighty God cannot lie and has promised to bring this about.
I know i cannot remove the pain you are experiencing; but i am confident that as the scriptures has brought me hope and is helping me cope with the loss of my father, it will help you cope as well.

“ To Vonda and Shalina. Sorry for your loss of your mother. I met her when she was my sister Cleo Young co worker and we became instant friends. Know that she was loved by many. She had a laugh that made others laugh along with her. May God give you comfort at this time.

“ To The Family,
Please accept my condolence. My heart goes out to you in your time of sorrow. I hope that you are able to draw comfort from the scriptures during this difficult time. One of my favorite text says, “If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning.” (Job 14:14, 15).

“ I would like to express my sincere sympathy for the passing of your love one. When death strikes, the pain can be devastating and difficult to cope with, but know that Jehovah God cares and will sustain you, during this time of sorrow.-1 Peter 5:7; Psalms 55:22. Jesus gives us a hope for those who have fallen asleep in death; there will be an earthly resurrection, when he will restore them back to life, with the prospect of living forever on the promised paradise earth.-Acts 24:15; John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43. Until then may God continue to bless and comfort the Pendleton's Family.-Isaiah 66:13.
