

Tammy Hopkins

August 11, 1972 - October 10, 2014

God saw the opportunity to take one of His beloved ones to her eternal rest. Tammy Reneè Hopkins departed this earthly home on October 10, 2014 at the Harrison House in Georgetown, DE, surrounded by her loving family.

Tammy was born in Lewes, DE to Cornelia Bradley and William Hopkins, Sr. on August 11, 1972.

Tammy received her early education in the Indian River School District and later moved to Cape Henlopen School District, where she excelled in academics and wanted to pursue a career as a Spanish interpreter. She was a very outspoken individual who loved sports and family. She played basketball and ran track for Lewes Middle School and Cape Henlopen alike. Tammy was employed at McDonalds in Rehoboth, DE, before her fatal accident in 1989. Some of her closest friends were Valdez Mumford, Trina Hopkins, Tynice Brittingham, Casandra White and Eva Custis-Wellman. Tammy could always have disagreements with her dad and would have to be reminded who the parent was. She was truly loved by all her family who put together a college fund in her name which gave scholarships to several students each year preceding her accident.

Tammy is survived by her father, William Hopkins, Sr. (Joyce) of Millsboro, DE; mother, Cornelia Bradley (John) of Millsboro, DE; grandmother, Cordelia Hopkins of Millsboro, DE; six brothers, Therman Hopkins (Rosalind) of Millsboro, DE, Anthony Hopkins of Dagsboro, DE, William Hopkins, Jr. of Portland, ME, Omar Rashada of Wilmington, DE, Travis Bailey of Wilmington, DE and Brian Bradley (Carolyn) of Millsboro, DE; two sisters, Terri Sewell of Wilmington, DE and Evelyn Allen of Rehoboth, DE; great uncle, Joshia Isler (Brenda) of Princess Anne, MD; great aunts, Lula Mae Isler of Georgetown, DE and Marie Isler of Millsboro, DE; a host of uncles, aunts, nieces, nephews and extended family who loved her dearly.
