

Tanya Aurelia "Tee" Dashiell-Singleteary

February 21, 1959 - May 30, 2020

Obituary

Tanya "Tee" Aurelia Dashiell Singleteary was born on February 21, 1959 in Washington, D.C. to the late Bobby G. Taylor and Margaret A. Taylor. Tanya was called home on the morning of May 30, 2020 surrounded by her beloved family.

Tanya received her education at Cardoza High School, where she graduated in 1977. She then attended the University of Maryland Eastern Shore in Princess Anne, Maryland.

On December 28, 1985, Tanya married Donald J. Dashiell, Jr. With this union two children were born, Candice N.

Taylor-Dashiell and Donald J. Dashiell III.

Once settled on the Eastern Shore of Maryland, Tanya began her fourteen (14) year career at Giant Foods in Salisbury, Maryland. Later, she became employed at the Salisbury Christian Shelter, where she continued to support, counsel, and inspire numerous individuals in the local community while spreading God's love and Christ's word.

Tanya was an active member in her church, Redeemed of the Lord Outreach

Ministries in Salisbury, Maryland where she serviced as a Pastor. She also organized the children's Choir and other programs. On Sunday, March 17, 2019, Tanya became an ordained minister.

Tanya enjoyed reading her Bible, spending time with her family and watching cooking shows. Tanya was always willing to help others. She welcomed many into her family and home over the years.

Tanya leaves cherished memories with: her husband, Leonard Singleteary; one daughter, Candice Taylor-Dashiell; one son, Donald (Asiha) Dashiell III; three grandchildren, Zyan Taylor, Trinity Dashiell and Kai'mere Jones-Dashiell and one sister, Rhonda Taylor-Gordon and one godson, Ramon Drayton. She was preceded in death by her parents.
