

Temecorie Matthews

May 28, 1945 - April 22, 2020

Temecorie Matthews, passed peacefully from this life on Wednesday, April 22, 2020, at home, surrounded by his family. Temecorie was born in Roxboro, North Carolina, on Saturday, April 28, 1945.

Temecorie was employed by DEL-MAR-VA Paving LLC for 13 years. He loved playing Spades with his family and friends. Temecorie was a great man who loved his family, grandchildren and all his children dearly. He always gave his honest opinion, so if you couldn't handle the truth then you definitely didn't want to ask him. He did all he could for anyone who may have asked for help in any way. He will be truly missed.

Temecorie was preceded in death by special friend of 18 years, Annette Holden, of Seaford, Delaware; mother, Mozellar White; father, Sanford White; daughter, Shaynita Matthews of Norfolk, Virginia; grandson, Deion Matthews of Norfolk, Virginia; three sisters, Barbara Jean Boone, Mozell Matthews and Oddi Pearl Holms all of Bridgeville, Delaware; four brothers, Andrew Matthews of Seaford, Delaware, James Clemons and Lee Marvin Clemons both of North Carolina and Troy Matthews of Bridgeville, Delaware.

Temecorie is survived by four daughters, Latoria Watson of Laurel, Delaware, Shirley White, Stephanie Matthews and Sherman Matthews all of Norfolk, Virginia; seven sons, Temecorie Matthews of Norfolk, Virginia, Terrance

Matthews of Bridgeville, Delaware, Larry Turner of Georgetown, Delaware, Shawn Walston and Lawrence Walston, both of Georgetown, Delaware, Steven Matthews, of Norfolk, Virginia and Stanley Walston of Bridgeville, Delaware; two sisters, Violet Broughton and Pattie Matthews both of Seaford, Delaware; one brother, Redale Matthews of Camden, Delaware; 32 grandchildren; 33 great-children; and a host of nieces, nephews and cousins.
