

Terrence Malone

June 30, 1978 - September 30, 2020

Terrance Terrell Malone, was called home on Wednesday, September 30, 2020, at his residence, in Hurlock, Maryland. He was born on Friday, June 30, 1978, in Cambridge, Maryland, to Betty J. Malone and Francis Fisher.

Terrence received his education in the Dorchester County Public School System. He believed in living life to the fullest. He enjoyed fishing, riding his motorcycle, going on vacations and watching football. His favorite team was the Philadelphia Eagles; win or lose he never gave up on them.

Terrance was a friendly, kind and loving person. Once you met him, you were no longer a stranger to him.

He had worked for Perdue Farms and B&G Foods. At the time of his passing, he had been employed by H & M Bay, in Federalsburg, Maryland, for five years.

Terrance was a family man. He especially enjoyed spending time with the youth of the family.

Terrance was preceded in death by his stepfather, Harvey Gregory; his maternal grandparents, Freddie and Stanley Malone and two aunts, Dorothy Malone and Inez Warrick.

Terrance leaves to cherish his memory forever, his mother, Betty Gregory; two brothers, Dante Malone, Sr. (Jessica) and Andre Fisher; one daughter, Trinity; fiancé, Sharon Cooper; four children whom he loved as his own, Reggie, Simerrah, Shakira and Zayvion; one aunt, Barbara Malone (Ronald); six uncles, Stanley Malone (Jessie), Jim Malone, Robert Malone (Lorraine), Melvin Malone (Marie), Calvin Malone and Carl Malone; five nephews, DaShon Ennals, Dante Malone, Jr., DaJuan Malone, Devon Malone and Jacob Sheeler; one great-aunt, Lela Robinson; two special cousins that were raised like sisters, Tykia Duncan (Jermame) and Brittany Richetts (Michael); one sister-in-law, Sylvia Malone; four lifelong die-hard friends, John Camper, Danny Cephas, Lamont Lofland and Abdul Shabazz; and a host of cousins, friends and co-workers. He is also survived by his father, Francis Fisher and paternal grandparents, Gladys and Wilford Tingle.
