“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one with the hope that we can in some small way comfort you with what the Bible reveals to us about GOOD NEWS from Almighty God.

As recorded in the Bible, God's only-begotten son, Jesus promises that one day he is personally going to bring back to life all those who have died, just as he did when he was on earth as a man (John 5:28, 29; 11:43, 44). What a glorious and almost unbelievable day that will be! It's a reality and a sure hope we can rely on because it is absolutely impossible for God to lie (Titus 1:2; Isaiah 55:10, 11).

My wife and I are confident you will be encouraged and comforted by the marvelous hope God has in store for us (Psalm 1:1-3; John 17:3). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.

“ Terri, I miss you. Every morning I looked forward to you coming to my classroom door to say good morning. We had a lot of laughs during naptime and on field trips. Thank you for all you did for Mr. Yum Yums and for me. You will be truly truly missed.

Earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal.

Much Love, Miss Thee

“ Heartfelt prayers and condolences to Terri’s family and friends. There are no words to ease the pain of her loss. She was a kind and sweet, girl and her smile could light up a room. I had the privilege of teaching her when she was in both the fourth grade and fifth grade. My own children and I ran into her right before she graduated and my kids liked her and thought she was sweet. I will continue to pray for the loved ones she left behind.
