

Thelma Y Hollis

August 8, 2015 - August 8, 2015

Thelma Edna-Lee Strand Young Disharoon Hollis of Cambridge went to be with her Heavenly Father Saturday, August 8, 2015. God was at the University of Maryland Medical Center at Dorchester waiting with His rainbow over the hospital as she made her transition.

She was born on June 17, 1928 in Accomac, Virginia to the late Lena Young Strand and Thomas Strand. She attended Pine Street School and was a graduate of St. Clair High School, Class of 1945. Thelma was employed by Phillips Packing Plant, The Sewing Factory and retired from Airpax Inc. She was a faithful member of New Revelations Baptist Church where she loved her church family.

Thelma who was affectionately known as (Mom, Nanny, Aunt Buck, Aunt Thelma) enjoyed hobbies that included but were not limited to cooking, gardening, crocheting and feeding others. She was a caring, loving and giving person. She always had a hug, positive and uplifting word for everyone. Her smile was infectious. She especially enjoyed spending Sundays with her great granddaughter, Ashia, who she faithfully made sure attended church. She was also a superior supporter of Ashia's praise dancing. You could always find these two after church eating out somewhere, from Cambridge to Salisbury. She enjoyed being outside. You could often see her sitting in her yard enjoying the outdoors while planting flowers and plants.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by husbands: Albert Young Sr., Andrew Disharoon and GoGil Hollis; Sisters: Pearlina Humaine, Alice Thompson, and Georgia Layton. She leaves to cherish fond memories: Sons: Albert Young (Geri) Spring Lake, Michigan, Barry Young Bloomington, Illinois; Brother: Edgar Strand (Margaret) Baltimore; Sister: Ruth Price; Grandchildren: Mark Young (Tyra) Cambridge, Tyvonnia Young Pensacola, FL., Joann Hubbard (Robert) Washington, DC, Stephanie Comer (David) Columbia, MD, Gail Mcfadgen (Wayne) Indian Head, MD, Roshawn Montague (James) Waldorf, MD, Lonnel Young (Danielle) Washington, DC, Spyane Young Philadelphia, PA, Barry Young, Jr. (Janelle) Louisville, KY, Kenneth Young Alexandria, VA; 19 great-great grandchildren, numerous nieces and nephews; Very special friends: Norma Lee Disharoon, Lorraine Brown, Patricia Stanley and Myra Williams. Caregiver – Rhonda Harris and a host of other friends and relatives.

“ REST IN PEACE OUR DEARLY BELOVED ALTHOUGH WE LOVE YOU GOD LOVES YOU BEST!
MOTHER THELMA Y. HOLLIS

August 14, 2015

Dear Brother Barry Young and Family,

We, the City of Refuge Ministries send prayers with heartfelt sympathy to you at the passing of Mother Thelma Hollis.

Be encouraged and sorrow not, even as others which have no hope. Although we mourn the loss of such a great woman of God; who was found to be an excellent mother, grandmother, sister and friend, we have the assurance that we shall see her again at the Lord's return according to the scriptures found in I Thessalonians 4:14-18. While Mother Hollis will be missed, we believe our Father in His infinite wisdom does all things in His timing: To everything there is a season, and a time for every purpose under heaven: A time to be born, and a time to die; A time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which was planted; A time to weep and a time to laugh; A time to mourn and a time to dance. Weep if you must. Then, sing unto the LORD, O ye saints of His, and give thanks at the remembrance of the LORD our God Most High!

Who is like the LORD our God, who dwells on high! Who humbles Himself to behold the things that are in heaven, and in the earth! Hast thou not known? Hast thou not heard that the everlasting God, the LORD, Creator of the ends of the earth, faints not, neither is weary? There is no searching of His understanding. He gives power to the faint; and to them that have no might he increases their strength. We pray you take comfort in these words knowing that you shall see your dearly beloved mother again safely resting in the arms of her savior at His return.

In closing, we ask that a copy of this resolution be given to Brother Barry Young and family and a copy be placed in the church files.

Humbly submitted in love this 14th day of August, 2015
