“ To all family and friends,
Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Many have found true comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37:11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). At John 8:32 Jesus said " and you will know the truth and the truth will set you free". For more information please visit the website jw.org.

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Sad to say at times like this we are reminded not only of how fragile life can be, but also how precious life truly is. It is a gift from God (Psalm 36:9). As you comfort and support one another as family and friends (Proverbs 17:17), may you also find comfort and hope in God's Word, the Bible (2 Timothy 3:16, 17). Jesus promises that one day he is going to bring back to life all those who have died (John 5:28, 29; 11:25). What a glorious day that will be! One such ones come back, the Bible says that they will no longer experience what mankind has endured for the thousands of years, namely God removing from mankind all pain, suffering, and death forever (Revelation 21:3-5; Isaiah 25:8)! Life will truly be worth living for both those who had died, as well as the living. Until then God wants us to do His Will and be blessed forever (1 John 2:17). As the God of All Comfort, he will help us to accomplish that as we endure the challenges of life on earth right now (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4; 1 Corinthians 10:13). Please look these scriptures up in your Bible and be comforted (John 17:3, 17). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you Mark 11:24).
