I've changed my address to Heaven,
I've crossed the Great Divide.
I know there's no sorrow or crying,
Because I've reached the other side.
I am so happy to be here,
for the Lord Himself I see.
I've changed my address to Heaven,
I'm safe forevermore.
For the Lord built a mansion,
And my name is on the door.
You can find us walking together,
For where He is, I'll always be.
I've changed my address to Heaven,
That's the place you'll find me.

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. Especially during this time of grief, we all need to be comforted in order to cope with our loss. God's Word, the Bible can give us such comfort. Jesus made it very clear that one day all those who have died will "hear his voice" and come back to life as God had purposed in the beginning (John 5:28, 29; Genesis 1:28). The Bible describes death as an enemy not only to mankind, but also to Almighty God (1 Corinthians 15:26). That is why He promises to finally get rid of death forever very soon as the Bible beautifully describes it (Revelation 21:3-5)! When you feel up to it, please read this referenced scriptures in your Bible so that the God of All Comfort can comfort you as you look to the future with much anticipation and hope (2 Timothy 3:16, 17; 2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.
