

Theodore Roosevelt Watson Jr.

May 16, 1943 - March 7, 2017

Obituary

Theodore Roosevelt Watson, Jr. departed this life on Tuesday, March 7, 2017 at Heritage Hall in Nassawdox, Virginia. Affectionately known as “Sommie” by his family and friends, he was the oldest of three children born on May 16, 1948 to Mary Lee Giddens and the late Theodore Watson, Sr. at Nassawdox Hospital in Nassawdox, Virginia.

Theodore was raised in Reidtown, Virginia and attended Northampton County Schools. After graduating from high school, he enlisted in the United States Army, faithfully serving three years in the Vietnam War. After being honorably discharged, Theodore took up residence in New York, where he met and married Kathleen. From this union, their daughter, Camille Nicole, was born. After several years of living away, Theodore return to Virginia.

Mourning precious memories of Theodore are: his mother, Mary Lee Giddens, whom he loved and admired dearly and would often refer to her as “Mama Popcorn”; his daughter, Camille Nicole; his friend, Kathleen; his brothers, Kenneth Leroy; his sister-in-law, Lutricia; nephews, Kenneth, Jr. and Noah; his niece, Renee; aunts, Ora Lee and Ethel; his uncle, Ike and a host of cousins and friends.

Theodore was preceded in death by his father, sister, grandparents, aunts, and uncles.

We will all surely miss Sammie who was the life of family gatherings. He always had something to say to make us laugh.

Rest In Peace

Affectionately Submitted,
Auntie Ethel Batts & Family

“ To all family and friends,
Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Many have found true comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). At John 8:32 Jesus said " and you will know the truth and the truth will set you free". For more information please visit the website jw.org.

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. At difficult times like this we cannot help but reflect on the preciousness of life and how fragile it can be (Psalm 36:9; James 4:14). As you find comfort and support within your circle of family and friends, may you also find comfort and hope in the inspired words found in the Bible (2 Timothy 3:16, 17). Jesus tells us there that one day he is going to bring back to life all those who have died (John 5:28, 29). It is vital that we not only know that, but also have full confidence and faith that it will take place (John 11:25). As Jesus fulfills his promise, obedient mankind will also experience something we have never seen before. Almighty God tells us that He is going to remove forever all the pain, suffering and death humans have endured for thousands of years (Revelation 21:3-5; Isaiah 25:8). Life and living on this earth will truly be happy as God purposed it to be (Genesis 1:28; Psalm 37:10, 11, 29). Until then God wants us to do His Will and be blessed forever (1 John 2:17)! What a wonderful hope and future lies ahead (Jeremiah 29:11)! Please look up all these scriptures when you can and be comforted by the God of All Comfort (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.

“ I am sorry for your loss, please accept my sincere condolences. I hope the family will find some comfort and strength in Jesus promise of the earthly resurrection (Acts 24:15) and the renewed Paradise earth, where death will be no more and no family will mourn the death of a loved one. -Revelation 21:3,4; John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43. may GOD (Psalms 83:18) grant you peace and comfort now, during this grievous time. -Matthew 5:4.
