

Theresa Satchell

June 13, 1956 - December 25, 2019

In loving memory of Theresa Ann Satchell, born on June 13, 1956, in the city of Chicago, state of Illinois. She was the oldest daughter of Louise Nathan.

Theresa began her education in Chicago and, some years later, after she and her mother moved to Brooklyn, New York, Theresa finished her education at an all girls high school in Brooklyn. She became a Certified Nursing Assistant (CNA) and provided in home care to the sick. She later worked at the Boys and Girls High School on Fulton Street as a dietitian.

In 1975, Theresa met William Abraham Satchell, Sr., and for five years, the two had a wonderful world wide relationship. In their travels, Theresa and William got married in Wicomico County, Salisbury, Maryland, on September 5, 1980, and together, for over 50 years, shared a loving and caring relationship. In 1997, they each retired from their jobs and moved to Delaware. Theresa then worked as a CNA at the following places: Atlantic Shores of Millsboro, Harbor Health Care in Lewes, Delmar Nursing Home in Delmar and Harrison House in Georgetown.

Theresa passed away on December 25th, Christmas Day, at 9:47 AM.

Theresa was loved by so many and leaves to cherish her precious memory, three sons; Alex Nathan (New York), William Stachell, Jr. (Delaware) and Carl Nathan (Delaware); three daughters, Adela Spencer (Delaware), Cherrita

Satchell (Delaware) and Raquel Nathan (New York); her mother, Louise Nathan (New York); a sister, Lewenda Nathan (Brooklyn, NY); two brothers; 16 grandchildren; seven great-grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
