Thomas Sylvester Hayman
His Journey...

Thomas Sylvester Hayman entered eternal rest on Tuesday, January 10, 2023, at Manokin Nursing and Rehabilitation Center in Princess Anne, Maryland. Thomas was born on April 4, 1942 in Mardela Springs, Maryland (Wallertown) and was the son of the late Albert and Edna Hayman.

He lived his life his way. He loved people, his children and his grandchildren. He retired from Long Life Masonry after working for a number of years. Thomas was a world traveler, from Philadelphia to New Jersey, from New Jersey to California. However, he always returned home. In spite of all his travels, his favorite place to go was from Wallertown to Princess Anne and Ocean City. He also loved walking in the park.

His survivors include: one sister, Jacqueline Smullen; one brother-in-law, Melvin Smullen and one sister-in-law, Jenni Fuller. He leaves nine children: Faye, Terri, Pam, Trent, Kaye, Vando, Marla, Derrick and Thomas, Jr.; fifteen (15) grandchildren Special cousins, Hazel, Sugar Pig, Shortie, Ardella, Gloris, Daniel, Pete Wiley and a host of nephews, nieces, cousins and friends.

In addition to his parents and wife, Janet Hayman, Thomas was preceded in death by: two brothers, Levi and Albert; one sister, Priscilla Jackson; six aunts, Elsie Morgan, Mabel Core, Ella Gray, Arnetta Byrd, Elsie Wells and Elosie Miles; four uncles, Riley Byrd, Charles Hayman, James Hayman and Alonzo Hayman and we cannot forget Aunt Nanse as we called her.
