“ I am sorry for your loss, please accept my sincere condolences. I hope the family will find some comfort and strength in Jesus promise of the earthly resurrection(Acts 24:15)and the renewed Paradise earth, where death will be no more and no family will mourn the death of a loved one.-Revelation 21:3,4;John 5:28,29;Luke 23:43. may GOD(Psalms 83:18)grant you peace and comfort now, during this grievous time.-Matthew 5:4.

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. At difficult times like this we realize how fragile and precious life is to us (Psalm 36:9). God's Word, the Bible gives us much comfort and a sure hope for the future (Jeremiah 29:11). Jesus promises, as recorded in the Bible, that one day he is going to bring back to life all those who have died (John 5:28,29). It is so vital that we exercise faith in that promise as Jesus encourages us to do (John 11:25). Death is an "enemy" not only to humans, but also to Almighty God (1 Corinthians 15:26). Therefore, as God tells us, when the dead are raised back to life, they will see something they have never experienced before, a life where pain, suffering, wickedness, and death no longer exist (Revelation 21:3-5; Isaiah 25:8; Psalm 37:10,11,29). Life on earth will be as God purposed it to be in the beginning (Genesis 1:28). What a glorious day that will be! Until then, God encourages us to do His Will and be blessed forever (1 John 2:17). Please look all these scriptures up in your Bible and be comforted and assured of God's promises (2 Timothy 3:16, 17; Titus 1:2). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.
