

Thomas W. Poulson

December 9, 1936 - October 20, 2014

Quietly and peacefully on Monday, October 20, 2014, our Almighty God in His infinite wisdom, mercy and grace gently called home Thomas William “Boogie” Poulson.

Thomas was born on December 9, 1936. He was the eighth child born to the late Jessie Poulson, Sr. and the late Margaret Taylor Bailey in Northhampton County, VA. His siblings: James A. Bailey, McKinley Bailey, Lillian Bailey, Charlie W. Poulson, Sr. and Aaron Poulson all preceded him with their home going.

He attended the Northhampton County Virginia public school system. On April 22, 1961, he met and married the late Helen Marie Kellam. In the early eighties, he met the late Linda Hack. To this union, three children were born: Earl Hack, Thomasina Hack and Timothy Hack.

In the late sixties, he relocated to Rehoboth Beach, DE. He was employed at Doxie’s Claim Factory in Lewes, Delaware until he retired in 1986. Then, he did various landscaping jobs to fill his idle time.

Everyone knew him by “Boogie.” He was a quiet man who loved to ride his bike and loved to walk daily when he was able. He enjoyed sports and he loved being with his family and attending family reunions. He loved his “fried chicken and bread.” He did not care what kind of bread he ate as long as there was a piece on his plate.

Thomas is survived by three children: Earl Hack, Thomasina Hack and Timothy Hack; step-daughter, Shelly Hack; two grandchildren, all of Rehoboth,

DE; four brothers, Leonard Smith, Sr. (Hattie) of Millville, NJ, Jessie Poulson, Jr. of Birds Nest, VA, Willie Bailey of Richmond, VA and George Poulson of Belle Haven, VA; two sisters, Margaret Sarah Bailey Lee of Machipongo, VA and Rhynia Upshur of Birds Nest, VA; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. He also leaves behind a few special friends, Mr. Earl Frazier, Mr. Sherrod Whaley and Mr. Jerome Hitchens. A very special “thank you” to a very special and devoted niece, Ms. Diane Poulson for her loving care, kindness and thoughtfulness and dedication.

“ Please accept my condolences for your great loss. During this grievous time, "throw all your anxiety one Almighty God, because he cares for you." (1 Peter 5:7) In his Word, He tells us he does not take pleasure in the death of anyone. (Ezekiel 18:32) Also, "He will actually swallow up death forever, And the Sovereign Lord will wipe the tears from all faces." (Isaiah 25:8) Think of the joy experienced when welcoming back to life right here on earth your deceased loved one. (Daniel 12:2) May this bring you a measure of comfort.

“ I am sorry for your loss please accept my deepest sympathy. I hope you will find your strength and comfort in Jesus promises of the earthly resurrection(:Acts 24:15) and the renewed Paradise earth, where death will be no more and no family will have to mourn the death of a loved one.-Revelation 21:3,4; Luke 23:43. May GOD(Psalms 83:18) grant you peace and comfort now during this grievous time.-Matthew 5:4.
