She would call family members and sing happy birthday to them. “ To Tiffany's family, friends, and fiance, I offer you my most sincere condolences. Though I did not know her very long, what struck me most about Tiffany was her deep love for her family and her love of God. She was always very friendly when we spoke at KLC and it was clear she was well loved by many. I cannot begin to understand the painful void her passing leaves in the lives of her loved ones. But what I do know are the promises of God. He has promised His joy is our strength. He promised to never leave nor forsake us. He promised His peace, which surpasses all understanding, would guard our hearts and minds in Christ Jesus. Though your hearts are heavy, may you find comfort in knowing Tiffany made a powerful impact on this world. She was a powerful worshipper, daughter, sister, fiancee, friend, who let the light of God within her shine wherever she went. Though she's no longer here in the body, we know she is resting in the arms of our Savior Jesus Christ.

“ I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your loved one. Please accept my deepest sympathy during your time of grief. Its always sad to lose someone we love, especially one as young as Tiffany. Please take comfort in the bible at this time. Acts 24:15, tells us that the dead will be resurrected. You have a chance to see Tiffany again at a time when death, sickness and pain will be gone forever. (Revelation 21:4) Please look forward to that time. Until then may your entire family be comforted and blessed.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one (Proverbs 17:17). At difficult times like this we realize how precious and fragile life can surely be (James 4:14). As your family and friends comfort one another, as a neighbor please also be comforted by the sure hope the Bible gives us for all those who have died (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). As recorded in the Bible, Jesus promised that one day he was going to bring back to life all those who have died (John 5:28, 29). That is why he encourages all of us to exercise faith in that promise, the life that he gave in our behalf, and be blessed as we see that promise fulfilled (John 11:25; 3:16; 6:40; James 2:17). The Bible makes it clear that death is an "enemy" not only to mankind, but also to Almighty God (1 Corinthians 15:26). That is also why God promises to remove forever all the pain, suffering, wickedness, and death that mankind has had to endure for thousands of years (Revelation 21:3-5; Psalm 37:10, 11, 29). At that time soon, as the Bible indicates, both the living and the dead who are brought back to life will enjoy life, everlasting life, as God originally purposed for this earth thousands of years ago in the Garden of Eden (Genesis 1:28; Jeremiah 29:11). What a glorious day that will be for mankind who are doing what God asks of us, namely that we simply do His Will, not our own (1 John 2:17; 5:3; Proverbs 3:5, 6). Please read and meditate on all these scriptures in your Bible and be comforted and blessed (Psalm 1:1-3; John 17:3). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.
