

Tikita Shanta Collins

December 21, 1982 - August 12, 2025

Obituary

Tikita Shanta Collins, affectionately known as “Big Kiki”, was born on December 21, 1982, and departed this life surrounded by love.

Tikita was educated in the Indian River School District. She was a hardworking and dedicated woman, employed at Bodies before her illness.

She had a vibrant spirit and a heart that radiated warmth. She found joy in cooking, shopping, and listening to music. Above all, she cherished the time spent with her children, nieces, and nephews, who were truly the center of her life.

She leaves to cherish her memory her devoted son, Kevontai Payne; her two beautiful daughters, Tyki’Rianna Collins and Jakihya Gibbs; her mother, Denise Collins; her father, Eric Middleton; her brothers, Eric(Jennifer) Middleton Jr. and Coretez(Madilania) Smith; and her dear sisters, Laondra Collins and Toccara (Devin) DeBerry. She is also survived by her grandfather, Henry Tankard; her grandparents, Clarence and Dorothy Baines; along with a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends who will continue to celebrate her life and legacy.

Though her time on earth was far too short, Tikita’s light will forever shine brightly in the hearts of all who knew and loved her.
